

Innovation Law and Policy Workshop

2021 – 2022 Schedule

DATE & TIME	SPEAKER
October 5	Angela Creager, History, Princeton Topic : Chemical Passports
November 16	Alain Pottage, Law, Kent/Sciences Po Topic : After innovation. Climate change and intellectual property
November 30	Jennifer Tucker, History, Wesleyan Topic : A “gun is a gun”? The neglect of innovation in U.S. firearms law
January 18	Mario Biagioli, Law, UCLA Topic : The Dark Side of Openness: Inventing Environmental Ethics at Trump’s EPA
February 1	Meg Leta Jones, Communication, Culture & Technology, Georgetown Topic : The Character of Consent: The History of Cookies and Future of Technology Policy
February 15	Mariana Valverde, Criminology, University of Toronto Topic : Governing Infrastructure in the Age of the "Art of the Deal"
March 1	Haris Durrani, History, Princeton Topic : Inventing Syncom : Public, Private, Global
March 15	Myles Jackson, History, Institute for Advanced Studies

2016 – 2017 Innovation Law and Policy Workshop

Date	Speaker	Topic
September 15, 2016	Mark Rose University of California, Santa Barbara	Authors in Court: Stowe v. Thomas (1853)
September 22, 2016	Arti Rai Duke University School of Law	Aggregating Legally-Encumbered Biomedical Data Silos: Lessons from Clinical Trial Data
October 13, 2016	Andrew Torrance University of Kansas, School of Law	Empirical Comparison of the Canadian and US patent systems, inventors, companies, and technologies
October 27, 2016	Amy Kapczynski Yale Law School	Order Without Intellectual Property Law: Open Science in Influenza
November 24, 2016	Dan Burk University of California, Irvine School of Law	On the Sociology of Patenting
February 9, 2017	Christopher Beauchamp Brooklyn Law School	Technology's Trials - a history of patent law in the U.S. from 1790 to 1952
March 2, 2017	Rebecca Eisenberg Michigan Law	TBA
March 16, 2017	Oren Bracha Texas Law	TBA