This project was funded by Genome Canada through the Ontario Genomics Institute. Special thanks are due to Dr. Dominique ... of the survey to the participants at this meeting and for his contribution to the development of the questionnaire.

REGULATION AND ORGANIZATION OF INTERNATIONAL RESEARCH ETHICS REVIEW - SEVEN EUROPEAN COUNTRIES the fundamental rule on the freedom of movement of services the director of a research unit. Besides the approximately 50 associations or hospitals) to quasi administrative bodies.

Only one evaluation is needed. The ethics evaluation is done bioethical commission is introduced in The Act on Medical ongoing evaluation of studies that received a positive

National Committee for Research Ethics in the Social Research Ethics in Science and Technology (NENT), and the instructions for use.

trial. This is research conducted in the Canton. This is Cantons with university hospitals, the

All Cantons have a cantonal REC, which recruit laypersons of other type of research.

Ministers in 1998. Members are appointed information on RECs, education, issue written reasons for its decisions.

There is an unofficial (national) voluntary involving other RECs: coordination of

There are no appeal procedures from

In most cases, RECs will refer to the Declaration, WHO guidelines and Act, Law on Protection of Dead

Conventions, and the Helsinki in his or her absence). The CNBC is by the Minister of etc. There are no appeal procedures from

There is no possibility

There are no requirements for there is no need for an accreditation system. It Arbitration, and the Oviedo Convention.

organisation of seminars. The Minister of there is no need for a national system of accreditation.

in enforcing research

Are there other found in the application's form to the RECs involvement in RECs?

other public

other type of research.

in corruption in health care in the responsible conduct of in the application. But also by the competent in the field of medical research. The participate in model for REC jurisdiction, less dependent on Therapeutic Products requires independence.

exists, independent of government bodies, its

Companies or other are particularly scrutinized.

This is a complex issue on which I have

2004, Revue de droit de la santé, 2004-has not been discussed in detail.

conflict of interest is not in the focus of conflict of interests. I am not aware of sponsors are particularly scrutinized.

This is a complex issue on which I have

2004, Revue de droit de la santé, 2004-in the first instance of Gand, 11 October companies or other

Liability for and

and Committee "Ethics in Science" at

Liability for and

In the application. It is an essential part of the authorities.

Liability for and

Liability for and