Advance Praise for Martin L. Friedland’s
My Life in Crime and Other Academic Adventures

‘Not surprisingly, Martin L. Friedland has written an excellent book which lucidly achieves his goal of combining a personal memoir with a historical and analytical investigation of a number of areas of law and public policy.... these memoirs are unsurpassed by any contemporary Canadian legal scholar.’
--The Honourable Frank Iacobucci, C.C., Q.C.

‘You cannot tell the story of Martin L. Friedland without also telling the story of Canadian jurisprudence of the past forty years. I recommend this to anyone with an interest in the history of law in Canada.’
--Edward L. Greenspan, Q.C.

‘Martin L. Friedland has given us an enormously interesting and engaging account of his life as a scholarly and practical law reformer.’
--Peter H. Russell, University Professor Emeritus of Political Science, University of Toronto

Martin L. Friedland, C.C. Q.C., Ph.D., LL.D., F.R.S.C. is University Professor and professor emeritus in the Faculty of Law at the University of Toronto.
