

Democracy At Stake?

Debating the Fair Elections Act

How would the proposed Act affect your right to vote? What are the benefits of the Act? What are its drawbacks? How would the Act change elections? How would it affect the state of Canadian democracy in the future? Come and hear a panel of six experts debate these important issues.

Yasmin Dawood	Law Professor, University of Toronto
Adam Goldenberg	Yale Law School
Jane Hilderman	Samara
Heather MacIvor	Windsor Law School
Michael Pal	Faculty of Law, University of Toronto
Stéphane Perrault	Elections Canada

Friday, March 21st, 2014

2:30pm – 4:30pm

Jackman Humanities Building
170 St. George St., University of Toronto
Ground Floor Conference Room

Subway Access – across from the St. George subway station

Generously supported by the Scotiabank University of Toronto Law Faculty Lecture and Conference Fund

