

Missing & Murdered Indigenous Women & Girls: The Continuing Tragedy

Saturday, March 21

11.30AM to 3.30PM

Lunch

Reports from Missing & Murdered
Indigenous Women Roundtable

Small-group Discussion and Strategy Development

Drumming and Song

The Church of the Redeemer's Aboriginal Issues Working Group invites all to a discussion on the issue of missing and murdered Indigenous women and girls.

Through this interactive afternoon of listening and discussion we will delve more deeply into the continuing tragedy of missing and murdered Indigenous women and girls. Please join us—share your experiences and insights; hear others share theirs.

~ Leadership for the event ~

Audrey Huntley

Co-founder of No More Silence, artist and story-teller

The Hon. Dr. Carolyn Bennett

Liberal critic for Aboriginal Affairs and Chair of the Liberal Women's Caucus

Mary Eberts

Human Rights and Aboriginal Issues Lawyer

Church of the Redeemer ~ 162 Bloor Street West (at Avenue Road)

Registration: www.TheRedeemer.ca

There is no charge to participate. We are grateful to Teresa Burrows for permission to use her image from the travelling exhibition "Walking with our Sisters", organized by Christi Belcourt, that honours the missing and murdered Aboriginal women and girls, on our event materials.