In-Firm Interviews - Ask Me Anything (AMA)

As OCI's come and go, in-firm interviews are approaching quickly. To help students learn the tips and tricks that might differentiate them from the competition in their interviews, the BLS is organizing an Ask Me Anything Forum. We are giving 2L's an opportunity to anonymously submit questions directly to 3L's who have been successful in the in-firm interview process.

Students are encouraged to ask general questions about best practices for succeeding during in-firm interviews, as well as very specific questions about specific firms or aspects of the interviews. At this highly competitive stage, these small advantages could be the deciding factor in whether you receive an offer or not.

The BLS will forward all questions submitted to participating 3L students who have been instructed to be very candid in their answers. All question submitters and responders will remain completely anonymous throughout the process. In addition to sending out individual replies, we will publish a newsletter of the most frequently asked questions to be distributed to all 2L's who have participated as well as our BLS Member ListServ.

Important Dates:

Monday, October 12: Question forum opens

Sunday, October 25 at 5:00 pm: Deadline for submitting questions

Wednesday, October 28: Individual responses and FAQ newsletter sent out

*Note: We realize most students will not have received any results from their OCI's until near the question deadline. However, we encourage you to submit your questions well in advance so that you will be prepared. Consider your strongest interviews, and ask questions based on your anticipated offers!
