

The 2015 CAPSLE Fellowship

CAPSLE is devoted to providing an open forum for the practical study of legal issues affecting education. To that end, the Board of Directors is seeking applications for the 2015 CAPSLE Fellowship. The annual CAPSLE Fellowship is in the amount of $5,000. (Cdn.). The successful applicant will present his or her paper at our annual conference. Past topics have included the role of the vice-principal, the constitutional right to an education, and the status of separate schools. In future, the association plans to sponsor a series of monographs on practical issues in education law.

CAPSLE 2015 Fellowship Criteria

1. Applicants for 2015 CAPSLE Fellowship must be Canadian citizens or landed immigrants enrolled in a Faculty of Law or a Graduate School of Education or related discipline at a Canadian university;
2. Applicants must submit a one-page proposal for a paper, project, or research etc. that
 - is applicable to current practical issues in education law;
 - exhibits academic rigor;
 - is concerned with new or ongoing research or study and not with work that is already complete;
 - must be complete by April of the year following the award; and
 - includes plans for a final paper which will be presented at a CAPSLE Annual Conference in 2016.
3. Applicants must attach a two-page curriculum vitae;
4. Written proposals which exceed one-page will not be considered nor will curriculum vitae which exceed two-pages, subject to exceptional circumstances; and
5. Applicants must attach three letters of reference attesting to the applicant's ability to successfully complete the project proposed.

The 2015 Fellowship Selection Committee reserves the right to make any decision it deems appropriate based on its full discretion. All decisions are final.

Please send proposals postmarked no later than April 15, 2015 to:

CAPSLE
37 Moultray Crescent
Georgetown, Ontario
CANADA ☐ L7G 4N4