

THE BAY STREET DIVERSITY FORUM

Student Forum on Diversity and Inclusion on Toronto's Bay Street

Are you planning on working on Bay Street but concerned about that elusive "fit"?

Did you hope to end up on Bay Street but were met with serious obstacles that you perceive were related to a defining characteristic that you possess?

Did you self-select out of the Bay Street process solely because you felt that you wouldn't fit in?

If you feel that one of these describes you then we invite you to come and participate in an upcoming, inaugural student diversity forum of law and articling students.

Registrants will be given the opportunity to engage in in-depth discussions with other students and committed Bay Street lawyers about diversity and inclusion in topic-focused, small working groups.

We will be discussing diversity of all kinds: gender, sexual orientation, race, politics, disability, socio-economic background, religion, and more, and we want your help brainstorming ways that we can improve diversity and inclusion. Ultimately, the results of these discussions will be included in a published report.

This is not a recruitment event and is not only for students who plan or even hope to one-day work on Bay Street. This is an event for all Canadian law students and articling students who want to see change on Bay Street.

This event will take place on

Friday, January 15th, 2016 from 5:00pm to 8:30

at Gowling Lafleur Henderson LLP, 1 First Canadian Place, 16th floor, Toronto, ON. Dinner will be served. Registration is free!

Registration is open November 9
