

Building Trust in Government

Public Sector Ethics Conference

September 29th & 30th, 2016

Toronto, Ontario

"The basis of effective government is public confidence, and that confidence is endangered when ethical standards falter or appear to falter."

John F. Kennedy

The Goals

The Office of the Conflict of Interest Commissioner of Ontario and its partners are pleased to present a one of a kind event on public sector ethics that will include a diverse panel of perspectives from leaders in the field. The conference provides attendees with a cutting edge discussion that is inclusive of the broad public sector ethics community and new perspectives. The organizers plan to develop peer-reviewed publications from the proceedings of the conference. The conference is LSUC accredited. Lawyers in attendance may earn 2 Professionalism Hours and 6.5 Substantive Hours. NOTE: Seating is limited so please register early!

The Venues

The dinner will take place on Day 1 at the Terrace Room of the Gardiner Museum of Ceramic Art centrally located at Bloor and Avenue Road. Day two of the conference will be held at the Jackman Law Building, University of Toronto at 80 Queen's Park Avenue (Room J140).
