

CANADIAN JOURNAL OF FAMILY LAW REVUE CANADIENNE DE DROIT FAMILIAL

ALLAN FALCONER MEMORIAL

STUDENT ESSAY COMPETITION

IN FAMILY LAW

Students currently registered in law faculties of Canadian universities are invited to submit articles on any topic related to the field of Family Law.

The winning article will be published in Volume 34 of the Canadian Journal of Family Law / Revue Canadienne de Droit Familial. Manuscripts should be double-spaced in Microsoft Word format and may be written in either English or French. The author must provide an abstract of approximately 200 words. The manuscript should have footnotes rather than endnotes, with a preferred length of 8000 – 10 000 words. Submissions and questions should be emailed to cdnjfl@gmail.com.

Submit By: June 30, 2020

Allan Falconer was a UBC law student who died tragically during his third year of the program. Allan was a former business manager of the Canadian Journal of Family Law. The essay competition was created in 1993 to honour Allan and acknowledge his major contribution to the Journal.