

The Aboriginal Law Program Speaker Series at the University of Toronto Faculty of Law Presents:

The Canada-China FIPA: A good deal for whom?

A discussion featuring the Faculty of Law's Professors Douglas Sanderson and David Schneiderman
& Osgoode Hall's Professor Gus Van Harten

January 14, 12:30-2pm Victoria College, Rm 215

Lunch provided; RSVP required: promise.holmesskinner@utoronto.ca

Ratified in September 2014, the Canada-China FIPA is a bilateral investment treaty. The panel will discuss the terms of the CC-FIPA and the implications of Foreign Investment Protection Agreements for Canadian sovereignty and Aboriginal rights.

