

THE POWER OF BILINGUALISM IN THE LEGAL PROFESSION

Presented in partnership with the Canadian Forum on Civil Justice

How can leveraging language skills improve access to justice and enrich your legal career? Join us for a panel discussion on how bilingualism opens doors in the legal profession.

OUR ESTEEMED PANELISTS

Justice Paul S. Rouleau
Court of Appeal for Ontario

François Baril
Partner, Gowlings LLP
President, AJEFO

Josée Bouchard
Equity Advisor, Equity Initiatives
Department, LSUC

Kelly Burke
Assistant Deputy Minister, Office of Francophone Affairs, Ontario Government

François Boileau
French Language Services Commissioner

JOIN US AT OSGOODE HALL LAW SCHOOL ON
WEDNESDAY JANUARY 28, 12:45-2:30PM IN THE MOOT
COURT, ROOM 1005 (LUNCH WILL BE PROVIDED)