

JD/MBA Admissions & Financial Aid Workshop

Earning an MBA along with your JD is a powerful combination. But what about getting in and paying for the program? If you're considering the program or planning to apply, don't miss this workshop!

If we haven't yet met, my name is Sheldon Dookeran and I manage enrolment into Rotman's JD/MBA program. On October 28th, I will host a workshop to walk you through the Rotman admission criteria. I will share with you my insights on what we look for in a candidate and how to submit the strongest application.

Jiffin Arboleda, Coordinator of Student Financial Aid and Awards will host the second half of the workshop. She previously served students at the Faculty of Law and will help you to become aware of financing opportunities for JD/MBA students.

You will leave this workshop better prepared for admission and to finance the dual degree. Remember, we recommend that you apply to the JD/MBA program by January 11th.

You will find the event details below.
