

SUMMER RESEARCH ASSISTANCE 2020

Professor Jutta Brunnée is looking to hire a full-time (35 hrs/wk) and a part-time (e.g. 15 hrs/wk) summer student to assist, inter alia, with research for the following projects in international and international environmental law:

- a paper on “Structural Challenges in International Environmental Law;”
- a paper on “Authority in International Law;”
- a research project on “Stability and Change in International Law.”

The position would run for 10-12 weeks; hourly pay would be $ 20.

Please submit a cover note, CV and copies of transcripts (photocopies are fine) by 3 pm on Wednesday, March 4, 2020 (drop material off with the Faculty Assistant in Room J-486, Jackman Law Building – 4th floor).

In your cover note, please indicate your preference for full-time or part-time work, your preference (if any) for one or more of the topics listed above, and any particular background knowledge / previous experience that would place you especially well to assist with work on one or more of the above-listed topics.
