

The Honourable G.I. Smith Memorial Trust

The trust is pleased to offer a $2500.00 bursary for a deserving Nova Scotia Law Student. The award honours the memory of Truro lawyer “Ike” Smith, a member of the Nova Scotia bar for 50 years. He was MLA for Colchester County in the governments of Robert Stanfield, succeeding him as premier from 1967 to 1970. He was appointed to the Senate in 1975 and served until his death in 1982.

This bursary is open to full time law students or articled clerks from Nova Scotia who have begun at least their second year of law school, or their clerkship in Nova Scotia or elsewhere. This includes second year students, their year students, articled clerks and students engaged in graduate law studies.

Applicants should have a record of significant activity in the areas of public and community affairs, sports, or arts and entertainment, and have demonstrated interest in bettering themselves, their communities and their province through professional and volunteer efforts.

Applicants must exhibit financial need.

Applications (including academic records and two reference letters) should be sent to:

Jeanne Archibald, Q.C., Chair
G.I. Smith Memorial Trust
c/o Archibald Lederman
43 Walker Street
Truro, NS B2N 4A8

The preferable and most expeditious means of reply is by e-mail directed to jarchibald@archibaldlederman.ca. Deadline for receipt of applications this year is December 31, 2016.
