

How to Ace Interviews for Law School Students

Tuesday, October 18, 2016

5:00 p.m. – 6:00 p.m. (Registration at 4:45 p.m.)

TLA Lawyers Lounge, 2nd Floor, 361 University Avenue Court House

Followed by a Mix & Mingle in the Court House Library

6:00 pm - 7:00 p.m.

Lawyers will be on hand to answer your questions.

Every year, law students are expected to shift gears from being a student to becoming a savvy sales person in an interview setting. And yet, not many students feel they have the skills, or content, to excel at interviews.

The TLA invites you to join a panel of seasoned recruiters, moderated by a career coach who works exclusively with lawyers and law students, to get answers to the following questions and more:

1. What sorts of questions should I be asking at an interview?
2. How do I interact with other interviewees?
3. What do I do at social events?
4. How do I answer behavioural and substantive questions?
5. What do I do after the interview?
6. What if I don't get a job?

Moderator: Paulette Pommells, Lawyer Coach, Creative Choices™ for the 21st Century Lawyer
