

CAMPUS PHILHARMONIC ORCHESTRA

The University of Toronto Campus Philharmonic Orchestra is a newly formed campus-wide orchestra for non-music majors (undergrad and graduate), staff, faculty, and community members who play an orchestral instrument and enjoy playing music! Rehearsals are held once a week and we perform one program at the end of each semester before finals' week.

WE WELCOME EVERYONE TO JOIN US!

The non-registered course is led by UofT graduate conducting students Lorenzo Guggenheim and Chad Emry Heltzel, and supervised by Director of Orchestral Studies, Prof. Uri Mayer.

- Rehearsals. Once per week on Thursday evenings, 7-9pm in Geiger Toren Room (80 Queen's Park— Faculty of Music)
- Auditions. You are encouraged to audition but it is not a requisite for the participation in the orchestra. We want to get to know you!
Please prepare two contrasting selections of 1-2 minutes
- Audition date. September 13th 5-9 pm SIGN UP ⇨ www.bit.ly/UofTCampusPhil
- First rehearsal. September 20th 7-9 pm
- Repertoire under consideration may include: Mussorgsky/Ravel's Pictures at an Exhibition, Rimsky-Korsakov's Scheherazade, and Dvorak's Symphony No. 9 "New World"
- Join if you play: Violin, Viola, Cello, Double Bass; Flute, Oboe, Clarinet, Bass Clarinet, Bassoon; French Horn, Trumpet, Trombone, Tuba, Orchestral Percussion, Timpani and Harp
- Purpose. We offer undergrad and graduate students campus-wide the opportunity to play in an orchestra that doesn't conflict with their academic and extracurricular activities in a committed but low-pressure environment. We believe that creating interdisciplinary collaboration and interdepartmental connections is part of the academic experience and generates a broader sense of community.
- Questions? Feel free to email us at UofTCPO@gmail.com
