Guidelines for the ethical and legal articles for the International Journal of Gynecology and Obstetrics (IJGO)

Rebecca J. Cook and Bernard M. Dickens
Co-editors: Ethical and Legal articles
Faculty of Law, University of Toronto, Toronto, Canada, M5S 2C5
tel (416) 978-1751; fax (416) 978-7899, e-mail: bernard.dickens@utoronto.ca

The purpose of these articles is to explain ethical, legal and policy developments in reproductive and sexual health for obstetricians and gynecologists.

Word count for text: 3,200-3,500: Pages: 10-12 pages.

Endnotes: not more than 25 references. Give only one reference in each endnote. No explanation is permitted in the endnotes. Simply anchor points in the text to literature, statutory, or, for instance, judicial case authorities. Give references once only, and repeat reference numbers out of sequence and specify particular pages in the text: e.g. [17] (p.86). Do not use the endnote function of Word. Input the endnote number manually.

Format for submission:

Synopsis- a 25 word or less summary for the journal contents page.
Abstract- a 150 or fewer word abstract.
Key words- up to seven key words in alphabetical order for indexing purposes.
Corresponding author- specify the corresponding author and give that person’s address and email.
Author contributions- Where there are multiple authors, explain the contributions of each author.
Conflicts of interest– Declare any conflicts of interest, explaining them in as much detail as necessary.

The ethical and legal articles are published quarterly in IJGO. The deadlines for submission are: Jan 15, April 15, July 15 and Oct 15. Authors are required to submit their draft one month before the deadline in order for the co-editors to review it for compliance with IJGO standards. Once accepted, online publication will follow within a month. Print publication will follow within 3-4 months.

Previously published ethical and legal IJGO columns are online:

VIII.2017